PROFILE

A dedicated Cinema and Theater student at Imam Mohammed bin Saud Islamic University, passionate about filmmaking — particularly writing, directing, and cinematography. Has worked across multiple production teams on film, theatrical, advertising, and large-scale event projects within Saudi Arabia and abroad, moving between roles in writing, directing, production management, cinematography, lighting, and actor direction. Co-wrote and conceived a short film that won Best Film at an international festival in Algeria. A social, collaborative team player who enjoys building relationships and supporting the team to realize a shared creative vision.
